

In-person Assistors are available to help you.

The state of Washington has a network of people to help you with your health insurance options. They are unbiased and free to you.

When you are going to your meeting, it is important for you to bring:

- Your photo ID.
- Your contact information.
Bring contact information for all household members applying for coverage.
- Your Social Security number.
Have these available for anyone in your household applying for coverage.
- Proof of income — if you have it.
This may include previous year's tax return, pay stubs or W-2 forms. Be sure to have this information for anyone in your household applying for coverage.
